evening.

University Heights is a Cleveland suburb and is 18 percent Black.

Mayor since 2010, Infeld, also the city's corrupt safety director, lost her bid for reelection to Michael Brennan, an attorney who has never held public office.

Community activists said they were pleased that voters could see through a racist Democratic mayor such as Infeld, who is White, corrupt and uses White cops to harass Black residents that complain about her harassment.

Activists say she should be investigated and indicted for theft and malfeasance in office and hate crimes against Black residents.

"Ousted University Heights Mayor Susan Infeld runs a theft ring of homes of Cuyahoga County residents with University Heights resident and Chief Cuyahoga County Magistrate Stephen Bucha and his wife, an attorney with the law firm of Lerner Sampson and Rothfuss who represent corrupt banks and mortgage companies such as JPMorgan Chase Bank and Wells Fargo," said greater Cleveland activist Kathy Wray Coleman, a greater Cleveland Black journalist who leads the grassroots group Imperial Women Coalition "Also involved are the law firm of Bricker and Eckler where former county prosecutor Bill Mason is now a partner, corrupt common pleas judges like judges John O'Donnell and Carolyn Friedland, county officials, the county sheriff's office, police in University Heights, led by the corrupt and racist Lt. Dale Orians, and a host of others."

Current county Prosecutor Michael O'Malley is also part of the corruption, Coleman said, and has Blacks maliciously prosecuted for University Heights, Mason, Bricker and Eckler, Lerner Sampson and Rothfuss, Thompson Hine law firms, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, among others, if they fight to save their homes against illegal foreclosures.

Data also show that in general, O'Malley is getting Blacks erroneously indicted in droves and is a king of mass incarceration of the Black community.

At one time Infeld employed as the city law director, the former attorney of former county commissioner and former county Democratic party chairman Jimmy Dimora.

Dimora is serving a 28-year federal prison sentence for racketeering and other crimes in office.

Dimora and former county auditor Frank Russo, who is serving a 22-year prison sentence for malfeasance in office, are among some 61 Democratic affiliates, including two common pleas judges, but mainly businessmen, who were either convicted or pleaded guilty to crimes via an ongoing county corruption probe led by the FBI.

Coleman said that the FBI should investigate Infeld, University Hts police, Chief County Foreclosure Magistrate Stephen Bucha and his wife, corrupt county officials and the county prosecutor's office, and a select group of corrupt municipal and common pleas judges for documented public corruption, including racist Shaker Heights Judge KJ Montgomery, who hears criminal cases brought by the city of University Hts.

Data show that Montgomery is also a part of the theft ring of homes and has Blacks maliciously prosecuted that complain. She also illegally employs attorneys that come before her to step in for her for judge to try to get Blacks illegally convicted of crimes, research reveals, and she issues extremely excessive bonds against the Black community.

Judge Montgomery, say sources, is sometimes allegedly drunk on the bench, and for a period, would not come to work.

Judges in general, and other elected officials, including the Cuyahoga County Clerk of Courts, and corrupt cops in a host of other Cuyahoga County communities are also part of the public corruption, a multi-year investigation by the Call and Post Newspaper and Clevelandurbannews.com and Kathywraycolemanonlinenewsblog.com

, Ohio's most read Black digital newspaper and Black blog, reveals.

The culprits, for the most part, are White Democrats who reside in Cuyahoga County, data show, some of the same ones who routinely court the Black vote.

A few Republicans, including judges, and anti-Black mainstream media-types, regardless of political party affiliation, are also at fault in perpetuating political corruption, racism, sexism, police misconduct and legal system abuse against the Black community, women, other minorities, poor people, and children and their families, among others.

Cuyahoga County, the state's second largest county behind Franklin County, which includes the capital city of Columbus, is roughly 29 percent Black, and a Democratic stronghold.
